2015 NSP/NBD Projects

The city has reduced our NSP and NBD funds this year to $4,800 for both NSP and NBD. At November's CCC meeting the following projects were voted on and will be included in 2015. NSP: newsletter, beautification, park mowing, website, insurance and Ebersole, NBD: beautification (Kellogg Avenue streetscape). For the third year, the city will be administering the programs. Invest in Neighborhoods remains as a neighborhood advocacy group.

RECENT OBITUARY

EDWARD C. HEHN

The Hehn family is suffering over the loss of their father, grandfather, great grandfather. EDWARD C. HEHN, Ed, was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hehn, that lived on Rohde Ave. for many years, Brother to Bud and Duck Hehn, Eleanor and Flora. Married to Dorothy Carnes Hehn, had 4 daughters - Kathy, Connie, Jenny and Darlene. Also many grand and great grandchildren. Ed is one of our W.W. 2 heroes who served his country proudly, in the U.S. Air Force during the war. He made 32 missions over Europe with no mishap. We are getting to so few that are still on our memorial. So please let's say a prayer for the Hehn Family and thank our wonderful men and women that gave so much for our freedom. OUR DEEPEST SYMPATHY TO THE HEHN FAMILY, THANKS FOR SERVING ED. From our little village of California.

LOOKING BACK

Going back, not that far, but to 1995 and a little booklet that was made for parents of children in daycare at the Ebersole Center. It was quite active at the time and the teachers worked with some of the children to make a recipe book for Christmas. Found this as I was going thru memorabilia at the Heritage Bldg. I thought it was worth some laughter especially during the dreary winter. Few of the children were residents and all must be in their 20's now, wondering if they actually made it to be a chef.

PEANUT BUTTER SANDWICHES by Chelsea Hensley, 3 years old. "Put peanut butter on the bread and spread it and bake them in the stove. Ummm you bake it for 5 hours. Put red jelly on it, or it's purple or black. Smash them and then eat them. You drink milk with it too.

SAGHETTITIOS AND MEATBALLS by Morgan Shepherd, 4 yrs. old. Take the can opener and open the can. Take off that round thing. Pop 'em in the pan. You don't use the stove, you pop em in the microwave. Cook for 5 minutes till the bubbles start popping. I guess there's 3 or 4 meatballs in it with those orange round things.

CHOCOLATE CHIP COOKIES, by Anthony Webb, 4 yrs. old. Use 6 butter sticks and cut it up with a spoon. Put it in a bowl and cook it up. Cook it for a couple of minutes at oven of 4. Before you cut them you have to put more peanuts in. Note: You eat them and they won't make you sick.

PIZZA ROLLS by Robbie Huff, 4 yrs. old. You get them out of the box, then the bag. When you spread them out and put them in the oven. Bake then in a real hot oven for, I think 4 hours. Then I ask my mom if they are done and she says, "Not Yet". Turn off the oven and put them in a bowl and eat them. Note: I poured mashed potatoes, one time to help my mom.

SALAD AND STEAK by Tyler Becjk, 3 yrs. old. You put in green stuff. Then you put that purple stuff in, it is kind of long. Stir it up and put dressing on it. STEAK - Well, you don't put steak in the salad. You eat steak with the salad. Note: Sometimes you put tatas in the salad".

PANCAKES by Elizabeth Zinnecker, 5 yrs. old. - Take this flour and you put it on this pan and it turns into this flat thing. Cook it on a 4" fire for almost up to about 20 minutes. Shake the pan a little bit and flip some over. Cut them up and put syrup on them. Note: you cook pancakes in the morning when the sun is up.

CHOCOLATE CHIP COOKIES. Cory Secen, 5 yrs. old. Take a spoon and dig the thing out of it. Put them on a pan that's flat like a drawer. Bake them for about 10 seconds in an oven that's little hot. Take them out and cool them off for 5 or 10 seconds. Note: you make these at grandma's house and my mommy's sister, Megan likes them.

I get such a chuckle out of reading these each time. Maybe you would like to add some to your recipes? OUT OF THE MOUTHS OF BABES. Just as they were quoted to the teacher.
